

Social Media Policy

The purpose of this site is to present matters of public interest in the City of Tyler that are related to tourism. We encourage you to submit your questions, comments and concerns, but please note this is a moderated online discussion site and not a public forum. Once posted, Visit Tyler reserves the right to delete submissions that contain vulgar language, personal attacks of any kind or comments that could reasonably be perceived as discriminatory based upon race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, national origin, physical or mental disability or sexual orientation. Visit Tyler also reserves the rights to delete information or links to other sites that are clearly off topic; advocate illegal activity; promote particular services, products or political organizations; infringe on copyrights or trademarks, violate the site's terms of service, are sexual in content or can compromise public safety.

Please note that the comments expressed on this site do not reflect the opinions and position of Visit Tyler or our partners and employees. If you have any questions concerning the operation of this online moderated discussion site, please contact the Marketing Department.

Representatives of Visit Tyler communicate via this website. Consequently, any communication via this site (whether by an employee or the general public) may be subject to monitoring and disclosure to third parties.
